City Masterpiece

An urban oasis and architectural icon in the making, 64-story Brickell Flatiron is adding an impressive silhouette to Miami's skyline. Designed by acclaimed architect Luis Revuelta, the slender glass tower will be one of the tallest residential buildings in Brickell, boasting panoramic views of Biscayne Bay and glimmering city lights; Sales & Design Gallery; 1001 S. Miami Ave.; 888.690.8526; BrickellFlatiron.com.

Carnival Of Goodness

PhilanthroFest, the nation's largest civic engagement festival, is back — and it's bigger and better than ever! On Apr. 11, the "Carnival Of Dreams" takes over Miami's Museum Park with non-stop family fun including a Center Stage, FUNville, Art Village, Hero City and a Field Of Dreams that includes a 200-ft. zipline overlooking Biscayne

Bay and special performances by Twiggy: The Waterskiing Squirrel. The day-long festival comes to town with the goal of linking the community with 100+ area non-profits. Free and open to the public. Attendees are encouraged to sign up with Uber using special code "PhilanthroFest" and your first Uber ride is free up to $20; Miami Parking Authority garages and area lots will also be available throughout the festival; PhilanthroFest.com.
